Ordinary Tasmanians are standing up to defend the old growth forests of the Upper Florentine valley- find out why

The Upper Florentine valley contains outstanding natural and cultural values. The majority of old growth eucalypt forest in the Upper Florentine is unprotected from logging. Tasmanians from all walks of life are coming together to defend this precious place.

"It is in my power to stop this madness. I join forces with the many who know this destruction is wrong". Maggie, Westerway

"I want to be able to look my grandchildren in the eye and say that I spoke out to save these magnificent forests". Sandy, New Town

Come and hear from some of those peacefully defending this magnificent place about what motivates them to stand up for our forests.
